

Public Relations Officer

Job Description

- Attend all regularly scheduled meetings of the MASC/MAHS Board of Delegates, which will be at least 4
- Will be involved in ALL local MASC/MAHS functions for own center as well as others if possible.
- Will serve as Historian of the Board of Delegates
- On a monthly basis, reviewing the website (MASC/MAHS) and giving a review to the MASC/MAHS Coordinator of broken links or outdated information
- Responsible for all correspondence of the MASC/MAHS Board of Delegates, within the network of board members, as well as to outside sources, if needed.
- Will be in constant communication with board members, helping Student Leadership Coordinator relay information to and from Board in a timely manner
- Will serve on Award committees along with Board members
- Will assist Center Representatives and Executive Board with duties
- Will collect and assemble the Center Representative's Center Spotlights into one document, review it for errors, and forward to the Coordinator of Student Leadership Services for web publishing.
- Responsible for adding to and/or adjusting this job description prior to leaving office

Students interested in applying for the Public Relations Officer Position should complete the MASC Board of Delegates Application. The application must be postmarked by the 2nd Friday in March.

The applicant will fall under all of the same requirements as the MASC Board of Delegates.