

✓ ADVISER Checklist

DECEMBER 2016

#Giving Tuesday with iSow: We are launching a #KidsHelpingKids campaign in conjunction with #GivingTuesday, on November 29, that will celebrate the spirit that we see on iSow every day – kids using special occasions as opportunities to improve the lives of those less fortunate. Click here for more information.

Last Chance! Apply to host a Regional Connect Event: Give your students the opportunity and excitement of designing a statewide student event! Apply here; the deadline is Dec. 1.

Adviser Network: Session #2: Legality in Advising is all set for January 24th in Lansing. Attorney Kevin Sutton from Lusk Albertson, PC will provide best practice concepts, legal updates and information to keep your programs on the right side of the law! More information on these one-day workshops can be found here.

Plan a “Wish Week”: Looking for ways to contribute to your schools culture of service leadership? Check out the program guide from Make-A-Wish Michigan’s and plan your very own “Wish Week!” A great way to get involved in our state charity of the year and make a difference in the lives of so many across the state. Wish Week information can be found here.

Looking for a Great speaker? Mark Black will be keynoting the 2017 State Conference but is looking to offer Michigan schools a great deal for the 2017-18 school year! For more information on Mark’s presentations, click here.

State Conference Phase 1 Registration: Phase 1 registration opens December 1! Give your students the conference experience of the year! For full registration details, click here.

Travel with Rog! One of our dedicated summer camp staffers is taking a trip to Spain and is opening this experience for leadership students. Please pass along this link for your student travelers.

Warren E. Shull Adviser of the Year Award: Applications for the National Adviser of the Year Award are currently being accepted! More information here.

November Quick Tips:

- MASC/MAHS award season is right around the corner! Consider assigning group leaders to handle the submission of each award.
- The long holiday break is a great time to refresh but also to plan a holiday party of your leaders! Consider a holiday meeting to refocus and set the tone for their return.
- Looking to attend the Student State Conference? Review the process with your students on traveling, finances and holding a fundraiser for students to attend
- NHS induction season is underway! Check out our curriculum pages for team building, bonding ideas to help your new members feel a part of the family!
- Make sure your students have a college plan! The FAFSA is right around the corner
- States Phase I Registration opens December 1st! More information here.